

CREATIVE PROJECTS

We're more than just a print and digital platform. Creative Projects are where we take our content off the page and into the physical world.

Kelburn Garden Party

Since 2018 we have programmed and curated The Pyramid Stage at the West Coast's longrunning jewel of a music festival. Now extending to all three days of the festival, we select the best local and up-and-coming artists to storm the Kelburn estate!

Peripheral Visions

This series of events (in response to the Film, Book and Art festivals in Edinburgh) took the form of a live podcast recording, a panel discussion and a creative play workshop, graciously hosted by CodeBase.

The Skinny 200th Issue Party

Sponsored by Skiddle, this was a celebration of, and thank you to, everyone who'd supported us through the tough times. We brewed our own beer for it (thanks Barney's!), raised money for Tiny Changes and put on a stack of top bands and DJs.

Our Stories: Between Myths and Memories

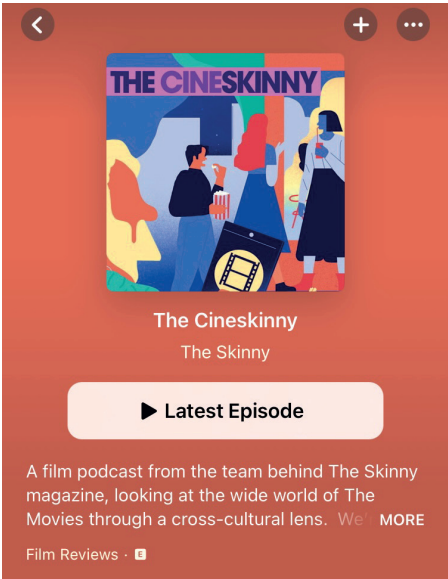

In partnership with the David Livingstone Birthplace Museum, this weekend celebration of storytelling across the Scottish African Diaspora featured dance, comics, books and poetry, condensed into a podcast for early 2023.

THE CINESKINNY FILM PODCAST

Launched early 2022, our fortnightly film podcast The Cineskinny has quickly become essential listening for film fans in Scotland (and further afield). Featuring discussions on classic films, brand-new films, film festivals, the politics of film, arthouse thinkers and action bangers with loads of explosions, there's a bit of everything for your ears.

With episodes seeing 100+ downloads and growing as well as thousands of views on socials, plus successful partnerships with a number of Scottish film festivals (including a sponsored episode on Glasgow Film Festival 2022 and a live recording at Edinburgh International Film Festival 2022), we're looking for sponsors to help us reach even bigger audiences in 2023.
