

GNAW

GNAW is an A5 food and drink publication from the team at The Skinny. It's our take on the modern food magazine, championing new and exciting writing and fresh perspectives on the food we eat and its impact on culture.

After two successful issues on the themes of 'Roots' and 'Community', we're keen to experiment and grow the magazine in 2026. GNAW's third issue will be distributed across the UK with a focus on Whisky (due out in spring 2026, date tbc). A fourth issue is due in the autumn.
